STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information under seal.

CASE NO. 2:19-cv-00393

Seattle, WA 98104-4040
Telephone: (206) 332-1380

1   2.    “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

2       “Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things
3 produced or otherwise exchanged: personnel, medical, and/or financial records related to any 4 individual, or proprietary or trade secret information with respect to Safelite (expressly including,
5 but not limited to, identification of Safelite customers).

6   3.    SCOPE

7       The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 8 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all 9 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony,
10 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

11      However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 12 the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise.

13 4.    ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

14     4.1    Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed
15 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 16 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the 17 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material
18 must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures 19 that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

20     4.2    Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 21 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any 22 confidential material only to:

23           (a)    the receiving party’s counsel of record in this action, as well as employees
24 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

BAKER & HOSTETLER LLP
999 Third Avenue, Suite 3600

Telephone: (206) 332-1380

5 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 6 litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

8                         (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 9 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service
10 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately
11 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

(g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

20       4.3     Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 21 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, 22 in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the designating party will 23 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion
24 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 25 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue.

1 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing
2 the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 3 the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material
4 under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must satisfy the 5 requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing the motion to seal.
6 Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with 7 the strong presumption of public access to the Court's files.

8 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

9 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each party 10 or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must take 11 care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate
12 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 13 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the 14 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 15 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

16 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 17 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 18 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses 19 and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

20 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 21 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties
22 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

23 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 24 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or

1 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 2 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

3                     (a)     Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and 4 deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings),
5 the designating party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” to each page that contains 6 confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection,
7 the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 8 markings in the margins).

9                     (b)     Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the parties
10 and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other pretrial
11 proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other testimony
12 after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after receiving the 13 transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the transcript, or 14 exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential information 15 at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

16                     (c)     Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place
17 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
18 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 19 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

20        5.3     Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 21 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s
22 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 23 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated 24 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

1   6.    CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2       6.1    Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 3   confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality
4   designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 5   burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 6   challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 7   original designation is disclosed.

8       6.2    Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute
9   regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential
10   designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration
11   or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other
12   affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list
13   the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-14   to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

15      6.3    Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
16   intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Local 17   Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 18   persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 19   made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 20   other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain 21   the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

22   7.    PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER
23   LITIGATION

BAKER & HOSTETLER LLP
999 Third Avenue, Suite 3600
Seattle, WA 98104-4040
Telephone: (206) 332-1380

1        If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels
2 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 3 must:

4                (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 5 subpoena or court order;

6                (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 7 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 8 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and

9                (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 10 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

11 8.        UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

12        If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential
13 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 14 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, 15 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the 16 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, 17 and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 18 Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

19 9.        INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED
20 MATERIAL

21        When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 22 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 23 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision 24 is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or

1 agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the 2 entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

3 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

4 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 5 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and 6 summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

7 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all
8 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
9 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work
10 product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

11 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 12 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.
